CLASSES AND ACTIVITIES

BACK TO SCHOOL

Opening day finds dazed freshmen in the routine of registration, fees, and book rentals. But soon--very soon--they start learning the ways of "high" school and what is expected of them in this new phase of their education. Sophomores think--"how long till the first free-day?" Juniors, reaching the half-way mark, feel confident that the last two years will be better than the first two. Seniors see Graduation finally in view and this alone makes the last year the best.

Gerald Stoltz, Louis Machall, Joseph Schmitt, and James Bickel receive books from Sister Eva.

The Senior Class of '55 under the direction of Father James Conroy, Father Charles Ueber, and Sister Mary Theodora, gave the play, "The Little Dog Laughed" on November 21 and 22 in Saints Peter and Paul Auditorium. The play is a three act comedy written by Vera and Ken Tarpley.

The plot of the play revolves around Laurie Huntington, a college student in Psychology. During her summer vacation Laurie decides to give the Zombroski Ink Blot test to her mother's friends to determine their personalities as practice. Besides insulting the ladies she caused her mother to become unnerved and interfers with her fathers chances of improving his business. But in spite of all the confusion and unhappiness the Huntington's trials and tribulations are overcome through mutual understanding.

The part of Laurie Huntington was played by Dolores Young and Eileen Ehinger. Her parents, Martha Huntington and Sidney Huntington were portrayed by Maryln PeGan and Roberta Lootens, and Robert Kelker. The part of Wally Huntington, Laurie's adolescent brother and a typical teenager, was very ably played by Donald Bartrom.

Marilyn Kapp and Larry B. Scheiber kept the audience laughing as they enacted the parts of Gus (Miss Gustavesky) and Horatio P. Honeywell. Gus was the Huntington's maid and Horatio P. Honeywell was her birdman.

Joan Wood, Wally Huntington's girls friend, was played by Betty Eckert. Ted Wood, Joan's father and Mr. Huntington's competitor in the used car business, was enacted by Raymond Johnson. Mary Ann Kelker portrayed the part of Lillian Wood, Joan's mother. Mark Bradford, characterized by Wallace Stoffel, was Joan's cousin and Laurie's boy friend.

The ladies, who so expertly failed the Zombrowski Ink Blot test were Sharon Landrigan as Mrs. Amelia Dennis, Sondra Bickel as Mrs. Caroline Blakesley, Carol Harvey as Mrs. Grace Schoenbeck, June Stoffel as Mrs. Walola Breckenridge and Sarah Welches as Miss Therese Brown.

He was assisted with the settings by Paul Ness. William Solloway managed to keep the lights lit and the bells ringing at the proper time. Sarah Welches did the paintings used in the Zombrowski Ink Blot Test. Mary Kathryn Ernst and Martha Holzinger were kept busy getting together the articles such as thermometers, a baton, etc., which were used in the play. Carolyn Sutton and Zelma Greenwell finally got their one desire. They were able to play with make-up two nights in a row. They did this, under the supervision of Mary Rydberg who was kind enough to help the Seniors. The ticket selling was handled by Rita Reinhart. Larry E. THE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

Although Huntington Catholic High School Parent-Teachers Association is comparatively new it has done much to improve parent-teacher relationships and assist students in various ways. To prove the PTA's efforts were not in vain select students presented a program made up of various class projects studied throughout the year. A pot-luck supper in May closed PTA activities for the year. Mr. Thomas Landrigan, Mr. James Fisher, Mrs. Richard McCutcheon, and Mr. Richard Briggs pictured above are the officers for 1954-55.

LIBRARY

The contributions the library gives regarding research projects, choral readings, and such, help students with current events that tie in with classes. Recreational and educational books are there for use, also, film strips, records, posters, and fiction stories. A special addition to the library this year is the "Abridged Readers Guide." Editorial Staff: Betty Eckert, Marlyn PeGan, Zelma Greenwell, and Marilyn Kapp.

Huntington Catholic's yearbook, the RAMBLER is published annually by the Senior Class. Under the guidance of Father John Reed the memories of the school year are retained in the pages of our yearbook. Although this is not the work of famed artists it is the Seniors sincere attempt to imprint their high school careers on the gilded pages of the RAMBLER. To the faculty, underclassmen, and especially to Father Reed, we are grateful for their help in publishing this yearbook.

The H. C. H. Ramblers '54-'55 season under the guidance of Kenneth PeGan had an impressive season, winning twelve of their nineteen games played.

With four returning lettermen, the Rams traveled to Warren for the season opener, where they showed considerable poise by trouncing the Lightening Five 60 to 41. Robert Boyle was leading scorer for the evening with 26 points. Gary Schultz captured 10 points for Warren.

The opening minutes of the Clear Creek game proved that it was to be a thriller. Because of a well balance attack the Ramblers trailed by only one point at the half way mark. In the final quarter H.C.H. went on to surpass the Bulldogs 37 to 35.

Raymond Johnson and Joe Hostetler were high scorers with 15 and 14 points respectively.

Larry Scheiber about to carry out his fake with a pass to Mark Fowerbaugh as Bernard Stoffel and William Solloway await a possible rebound.

The Rams were handed their first defeat by the Huntington Township Bearcats. Although the Irish enjoyed a considerable lead at the first half it was to no avail. The Cats edged them out by displaying unusual shooting ability. The final score was 33 to 36 in favor of the opponent.

In spite of Monmouth's size the Rams were able to bring home a 50 to 39 victory. Throughout the first half the game was nip and tuck. The Rams were assured victory in the fourth quarter due to their outstanding scoring. Michael Fisher led the way with 20 points.

The Lancaster game was a continuance of the Ramblers winning streak. Superiority was shown by the Irish throughout the contest, with free throw accuracy paving the road to victory. The final score being 61 to 40.

The Decatur game was the first game of the season in which the fans could sit back and relax. The subs gained valuable experience since the regulars made quick work from the scoring angle. Ray Johnson led the Catholic quintet with 22 points.

The Harlan Hawks were victorious in a hard fought ball game. Although the Rams battled gallantly they fell behind to trail at the first half 20 to 31. In the third stanza H.C.H. gave the fans new hope only to go down to defeat in the final quarter. Despite Fisher's and Johnson's superior shooting the final tally was 63 to 56.

Next the Irish traveled to Jefferson of Whitley County only to be bested by a determined Jefferson quintet. Throughout the contest expert ball handling was displayed by both teams. The main factor contributing to the Irish defeat was inefficiency at the foul stripe.

In a pre-holiday game the Catholic squad handed the Jefferson of Huntington club a 67 to 51 defeat. Even though it took the Rams a considerable time to get started they enjoyed a lengthy lead throughout the entire second half. Johnson and Fisher again lead the Rams with 19 and 12 points res-

To start the new year out the Ramblers walked away with a 59 to 39 victory over the Marion Bennett five. The third stanza proved disasterous for the Bennett club due to the defensive force of the Irish.

The Bippus Tigers invaded the Community gymnasium to be handed their third straight by the Ramblers. H.C.H. showed superb ball handling especially at the charity stripe. Leading scorers were Fisher and Hoch with 15 and 16 Points.

In traveling to Hoagland the Rams although a little nervous showed excellent techniques to come out on the long end of a 66 to 49 game. The nets seemed to burn throughout the entire game with shooting honors going to Michael Fisher and Robert Boyle with Richard Briggs close behind.

The Irish sent the Roanoke Stonewalls home on the debit side of the ledger as they defeated them for the second time. There was expert shooting from both teams. David Welker paced the losers with 21 points. While Fisher and Johnson shared the largest part of the burden for the Rams. The final score was 59 to 56.

STOFFEL

The Huntington Township Bearcats, the city rival, invaded the Community Gymnasium to overpower the Ramblers 45 to 42. Although Johnson did an excellent job on guarding Crago, the outstanding center for the Cats, Laurie burned the nets for thirteen markers, while Johnson scored 15 points for the Irish.

The Cardinals of Andrews fell by the wayside because of a fast-moving Catholic quintet. A well balanced team in regard to shooting honors was the main factor for the Irish victory. At the end of the final stanza the score read 66 to 52.

Although the Rambler five led most of the way in the Union game the Sharpshooters rallied in the third quarter to hand the Irish a heart-breaking defeat. Robert Boyle was high scorer with 16 points for the Rams. Kline was high point man with 16 markers for Union.

The Rams chalked up their twelfth victory of the season by overpowering the Lancaster Bobcats 68 to 51. Boyle again lead the way for the Irish by scoring 22 points. In the season final the Ramblers were edged out by the South Whitley Bulldogs 56 to 51. After the first quarter the Rams seemed to go into a slump from which they never recovered. Scoring honors went to Ray Johnson.
